"E" FOR EFFORT

A little boy answered the salesman's phone call. "Is your mother or father home?" the salesman asked. The answer was no. "Well," persisted the salesman, "anyone else I can talk to?" The boy said his sister was there and he'd put her on. There was a five - minute wait. Finally the boy got on the phone. "I'm sorry," he said, "but I can't lift her out of her crib."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Silence, Please!

Cap Edwards' little boy started taking saxophone lessons a few weeks ago, and they tell me the noise on Upper Main Street was pretty bad.

Then, one afternoon, the Edwards' house was quiet again, and Mrs. Jackson next door figured the boy must have given up tooting his horn. Next time she saw Sis Edwards she asked her about it.

"Well," Sis said, "we knew that racket must be driving you folks crazy. So Cap got a soundproof telephone booth from the phone company second-hand. Junior practices in it to his heart's content. Even I don't have to hear him!"

From where I sit, Cap is living up to one of our oldest American principles — respect for a neighbor's privacy and feelings. You can be sure a thoughtful man like Cap isn't trying to force his opinions and preferences on anyone. He's the sort of man who'll go out of his way to have a bottle of beer ready to serve his guests even though he may not enjoy beer himself. We can all learn a "lesson" in tolerance from Cap's phone booth.
